How to Read These Dashboards

Metric definitions, data sources, and the story behind the numbers

Marketing Dashboard

Website Traffic

Total sessions across all channels, tracked from Google Analytics.

Leads Generated

Form fills, downloads, and demo requests captured by the marketing automation platform.

Conversion Rate

Share of site visitors who become a marketing-qualified lead.

Cost per Acquisition

Total marketing spend divided by leads generated in the period.

Sales Dashboard

Revenue

Closed-won bookings recognized in the CRM for the period.

Deals Closed

Count of opportunities marked closed-won.

Win Rate

Closed-won deals as a share of all closed opportunities.

Avg. Deal Size

Total closed-won revenue divided by deals closed.

Key insight: Marketing-sourced leads are converting to closed-won deals at a healthy rate this quarter — traffic and lead growth on the left are translating directly into the revenue and win-rate gains on the right.
